EXPERIENCE PLANNING

Finally, once your colleagues book their stays using the dedicated McKinsey booking link, the Miraval experience planning team will schedule a 15 – 30 minute phone call to help craft their itinerary. For maximum availability, we recommend scheduling activities and spa services at least 4-6 weeks in advance of the stay. We also encourage your colleagues to read all Miraval emails leading up to their arrival! Each email contains important information about their stay and how to make the most of the Miraval experience.
